Sportsman's Arms Hotel

Contact: info@sportsmansarms.com

Location: The Sportsman's Arms is located on the outskirts of Nanyuki town, on the equator. Nanyuki, the gateway to the Northern Frontier District, is a country town, initially established as trading centre which continues to serve many of Laikipia's remote ranches.

Description: An ideal getaway for both local and international visitors, travelling for pleasure or business. The Hotel, a mixture of traditional and modern architecture, has the capacity to accommodate 125 people in a variety of rooms, to suit every budget and taste.

Accommodation/Facilities: Accommodation consists of 25 modern, lavishly furnished rooms – self contained with satellite TV, and a choice of old and new cottages with cosy fireplaces. There is a restaurant and terrace offering both local and international cuisine. The Pirate's Deck bar has live music and pool tables. The Hotel has an Olympic size pool, health club, gym, sauna and squash court. There is a well equipped business centre, internet access, and conference facilities including a board room.

Hosted: A team of trained staff and experienced management.

Activities:

- Mountain climbing
- Trout fishing expeditions
- Game drives to Sweetwaters Game Reserve
- Expeditions to The William Holden Wildlife Foundation
- Horse riding

Optional Extras: Outside activities arranged through the Hotel.

Closed Seasons: Open all year round

Access: By road from Nairobi takes approximately 3 hours.
